The video is where the Easy Breathers story began, so it's where you should begin.
Order your FREE copy today!

Real high school students worked in front of and behind the camera to produce a video that investigates air pollution problems and teaches new teen drivers the importance of making wise, eco-friendly driving choices. A great springboard for science, driver's education, or environmental lessons, it leads students through the causes and impacts of air pollution and introduces some amazing technological solutions (e.g. electric cars, fuel cells, solar power).

To receive your FREE copy of the Easy Breathers Video, please fill out the following form, print it off and mail to: Elisabeth Olson, WI DNR, CE/8, PO Box 7921, Madison, WI 53703. All we ask in return is for a promise from you to return the evaluation card found inside the video cover after you view the video. We want to know what you think!
